

2 : Cybersecurity

Analysis of SQL injection attacks and database protection.

The objective of this internship is to study the main vulnerabilities of databases to SQL injection attacks, design a secure testing environment, and develop advanced mitigation techniques to prevent such attacks.

Part of the internship will also include log analysis and automated threat detection using tools like Snort and Suricata.