1 : Web Development

Development of an e-learning platform using React and Node.js.

This internship will involve designing and implementing a modern web application for managing courses, student registration, and integrating artificial intelligence to recommend personalized educational content.

The goal is to optimize the user experience and ensure a scalable platform.

The project will also include notifications management, an interactive quiz system, and an admin interface to track student progress.